"Blindfold"

Now I'm on the edge of losing grip
My body trembles trying not to let go
How did we end up trapped in this whole ego trip?
How can right feel like it is all wrong?

Now we've reached the point of no return
Is there anything left worth fighting for?
Uncried angers demand their right to be heard
Will you listen or keep your blindfold on?

Will you, will you, will you, will you?

Will you listen or keep your blindfold on?
Will you listen or keep your blindfold on?
Will you listen or keep your blindfold on?
Will you listen, will you listen?

Now I'm on the edge of losing grip
