You say you love me but you just don't know how to show me that You're such a nice guy, I like you a lot, so I'll give you the key to success
Take your time to observe every move that my dog makes
I'm not joking, cause he found the way to love me like nobody else

Watch him jump, full of joy, every single time he sees me (he sees me)
How he gives me a hug, then a big kiss and makes me feel good instantly
How we play in the sun, or just take long walks in the park (walks in the park)
And how he sleeps at my feet, every night, protecting my life from the dark

So don't you be ashamed to learn from the best
Look through his eyes to see what it means to adore me
Try win him with a bone and he'll teach you the rest
My dog was here before you and he'll always be... right next to me!

I love the way he can make me laugh everytime I'm sad (everytime I'm sad)
He doesn't lie, drink, smoke, sleep around and, most of all, he's never mad
Look how he watches me, taking in every word I say (every word I say)
And after that, he can barely wait to lick me all over my face
To lick me all over my face

So don't you be ashamed to learn from the best
Look through his eyes to see what it means to adore me
Try win him with a bone and he'll teach you the rest
My dog was here before you and he'll always be... right next to me!

Now kiss me so he can see you
This is it, the final test
But if your love is not true
He will bite your phony ass
He will bite your phony ass!

So don't you be ashamed to learn from the best
Look through his eyes to see what it means to adore me
Try win him with a bone and he'll teach you the rest
My dog was here before you and he'll know he won... right after you're gone!

Right after you're gone
Right after you're gone
Right after you're gone
