"The Martyr"

Visit "The Martyr" on MotoLyrics.com

My place and purpose in this world
Is to show you a way out.
Just say the word and you'll be honored
And as a martyr maybe feared even more!

I am the martyr -
After the jump I will fall!

The wind blows in my ears
She screams that I should die
For what I did - die for my believes!

Some would seek forgiveness
Others knew they'd go to hell for what they did
If there's a god would he really want you
To be a martyr just like me and fall!

I am the martyr -
After the jump I will fall!

The wind blows in my ears
She screams that I should die
For what I did - die for my believes! [x2]
