"Drink In The Skull Of Your Father"

Dark eye sockets grim sneer
Empty astonishment to the sky
Where's the blue light of your eyes
And the wisdom of your smile
Be my heart a lifeless crypt
Temple of the hate
Mercy is dead vengeance is awake
I'll never forget his words

Oath of vengeance oath of hate
Swore on my father's sword
Like a fever in my soul
A dark demon without rest
Implacable fire burns
It's consuming me
I cannot forget
Until the last breath
The terrible words he said
Drink in the skull of your father
You will drink in your father's skull
Like a tree without roots
Now I am dead inside
But to avenge go on my life
I'll kill him before I die
Drink in the skull of your father
You will drink in your father's skull
