ahh-ahhhhhhhhhh, ahh-ahhhhhhhhhh

How many lives to a count i can see
Give me an excuse, i would lead you to me
Even your heart for the things agony
I might have to chase you if shall never free

I opened up my eyes
When they opened the door
Set me free and i will fight for more

I got something in my heart (in my heart)
Something in my soul (soul)
I got something in this body i must show
I've been waiting all my life working dusk to dawn and finally another has been told

How many lives to a count i can see
Give me an excuse, i would lead you to me
Even your heart for the things agony
