No chance such that's what you've got
We're up against a machine too strong.
Pretty politicians buying souls for us are puppets
Who'll find their place in line
But tie a string around your finger now boy cause it's It's just a matter of time
'Cos you've got no chance
No chance in hell you've got
No chance, no chance in hell you've got
NO chance
No chance in helllllllllll
C'mon C'mon come and get it c'mon C'mon C'mon come and get it, c'mon come on come on come and get it, c'mon.
C'mon come and get it
No chance
No chance in hell you've got not chance, no chance in hell, (continued)
No Chance in helllllll.
