All you can save is the love that we made Leaves all scattered in the wind, thousand hearts and Hopes within Speaking slowly tattered tongues, chaos misspelling right
And wrong
Out of human factories, young confound a brand new breed

Sudden comes the last goodbye, kept it in, my tears run

Dry
Grab my hands into the soil, into this earth, this mortal Coil
Saw my son a tired old man, slipping out of daddys hands
Should I tell you long ago, how I loved you, did you Know?
Did I tell you? Did I tell you? Did I teach you?
