In the dark misty forest at night
Under the fullmoon's ghostly light
Their gathering trip to the house by the lake
Is about to end up in fright
So scream, Scream, Scream, Scream
They know that something's there
Somewhere close but they don't know where
See them run up the stairs in panic
And hide their faces in fear
Scream - As it's coming for them
Scream - They fall as you do
Scream - It's right on their tale
Scream - As they fail
Now a lonely man stands
The monster turns to clay in his hands
The previous engine of death and destruction
Turns to a fumbling fand
The movie has come to an end
Laugh it away, Say goodbye to your friend
You cold lonesome walk through the dark misty night
Is about to end up in fright
You know that someone is there
Somewhere close but you don't know where
So raise the pace of your steps and run
Towards your home in fear
Scream - You'r not alone
Scream - Run, Don't stop
Scream - He's right on your tale
Scream - He just might fail
Scream - Slam shut the door
Scream - Turn off the lights
Scream - Act insane
Scream - In vain...
Was the movie worth the price?...
