"Just Breathe"

Is this yellow brick road going anywhere?
Am I missing my train? How am I getting there?
Don't know where it goes, but I know it's meant for me.
Yeah, am I gonna fall down if I miss a step?
Don't wanna live life chasing my regrets.
I know I'll always have my home to go back to.

I can't hold my breath forever,
But I know it's now or never.
Sick and tired of stormy weather,
Lift this weight off me.

If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.
If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.
If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.
If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.

If I just breathe
(Breathe, breathe, breathe)
If I just breathe
(Breathe, breathe, breathe)

I pray and drive, no I'm not the first.
Don't know what's ahead, life is unrehearsed.
The curtain opens and I'm ready for the spotlight.

I can't hold my breath forever,
But I know it's now or never.
Sick and tired of stormy weather,
Lift this weight off me.

If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.
If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.
If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.

If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.

Don't care how long it takes me.
Nothing's gonna break me down or clip my wings,
'Cause I'll be standing tall, I'll rise above it all.
No stopping me (there's no stopping me).
There's no looking back, I finally found my pack;
And all I have to do is not forget.

If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.
If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.
If I just breathe;
And I let go, 'cause there's no hold on me.
If I just breathe;
And I jump in, 'cause the water ain't that deep.

If I just breathe
(Breathe]) [echo x4
