Sometimes I like to sit in my bedroom with my sunglasses on
And imagine the photo-framed bars in my bedroom are a window
That wouldn't let in the creepy crawlies and all the wee french beasties that like to bite me.

Oh window why can't you let in some butterflies ?
Why can't you paint me a pretty picture that'll bring the tears to my eyes ?
Why can't you enlarge yourself so that I can climb outside ?

Last night I did nothing but cry
And imagine the ache in my stomach would go away cause it really makes me want to die
Oh I know it'll go. I know it'll go. It's always worse to be alone.

Oh window why can't you let in some butterflies ?
Why can't you paint me a pretty picture that'll bring the tears to my eyes ?
Why can't you enlarge yourself so that I can climb outside ?

I just want to get away.
I wanna sit outside with a cigarette in my hand
Even though I know it's gonna kill me one day.
You're such a stupid girl.
You were always such a stupid stupid girl

Oh window why can't you let in some butterflies ?
Why can't you paint me a pretty picture that'll bring the tears to my eyes ?
Why can't you enlarge yourself so that I can climb outside ?
