hell yeah sweet serenade all those fucking chemicals are running through my brain i'm a pissed little sister with a wicked kind of mind don't trust me cause i'll never be around i've got a feeling that my life keeps ticking away while i dig my grave but that's ok
i've got nothing better to do today hey drag me to the grave put me away would you bury me hey drag me to the grave end this story and drag me to the grave hey drag me to the grave c'mon baby kill me
hey blow me away
you'll be the death of me bottoms up at the edge of the fall if you doubt the mentality i'll ram you through the wall count down break down ready to blow goodnight people that's the end of the show i'll keep on digging
'til it's big enough for me put my hands together and pray and see what death turns out to be
