Made for each other, your heart and mine,
Made for each other, from one design.
Right from the moment i saw you
I knew that I'd adore you.

Once in a lifetime love comes your way,
Now is the right time, let's make it stay,
For you're the one that I prayed for,
The one that I was made for.

My world is planned around you,
It had to be, this romance of ours;
And, long before I found you,
Your name and mine had been written in the stars.

Made for each other, like sun and sky,
We'll have each other as years go by,
We'll share together the dream that you and I
Made for each other!!!
