I've only got one life and I'm gonna live it up,
So pour me a drink, maybe two, maybe four.
Yeah it's true, I ain't got no job
Yeah it's true, I'm a real slob
Cause I don't care to think about tomorrow no more
And I'm saying

I don't wanna be the man of tomorrow,
I just gotta be the man of today
I don't wanna be the man of tomorrow,
I just gotta be the man of today
Come on drinking with me, we're gonna take 'em down
Ever met Jack D? You're gonna meet him now
Finish fast or pass the glass
But whatever you do don't mess with the man

I've been looking real long at your problems,
It's probably you, but don't get me wrong
Yeah it's true you work so hard
Yeah it's true you gotta real good job
But that doesn't mean we can't hang out no more

Come on drinking with me, we're gonna take 'em down
Ever met Jack D? You're gonna meet him now
Finish fast or pass the glass
But whatever you do don't mess with the man
