Time is what you make of it,
So don't waste your time being celibate
Time is what you make of it,
So don't waste your time saying the hell with it.

Time

When I remember my days of young,
When I spend my time having fun
And I remember my days of youth
When I'd get a dime for my tooth,

Cause when you're young,
You don't wanna get old
Then time comes in and takes it's toll
So do all the things you wanna do
Cause in your life, this world for you.

Time is what you make of it,
So don't waste your time being celibate
