

Sprung Monkey "Elevator Boy"

Visit "Elevator Boy" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm an elevator boy
Just trying to get to the top
And I'm like curtains drawn in a window
You'll never see too much
I'm not a puppet on a string
Ready to move where you guide me,
A toy without a mind can't you see me dancing like a fool
Well I'm scared but it's my fears that will take me,
Lift me, send me
Cause I'm an elevator boy
Just trying to get to the top of life
And I'm like curtains drawn in a window
You'll never see too much of me
I'm not a needle in your arm taking you higher and higher
Trading all your dignity for a moment in time
'Cause I believe, that someday you'll hear me
Yeah someday you'll see me shining in lights
As you take something from me
Money buys things, but it can't buy pride
And you break a big part of me
Well someday you'll see me shining in lights
As you take something from me
Money buys things, but it can't buy pride
As you break a big part of me
Well someday you'll see me shining in lights
I will not stop 'till I reach my dream
And I'll climb as long as it's inside of me
With it all before my eyes it's all I see
Oh I will not stop until I reach-
'Cause I,m an elevator boy
I'm an elevator boy
I'm gonna get to the top
