(Steve Summers)

now there's a man who is left with nothing believing he could make a difference passive nature with kind intentions it seems we feed upon the lonely going for the angry (4x) now there's a man who instead of caring chose to take and give of nothing now he sits in his world of excess wondering why he's still not happy
going for the angry (4x)
now hear me scream what you're telling me

but i don't believe you you tell me the things that i want to hear
but i don't believe you now sit and pray to your paper god with your hands up in the air not knowing the cost that it's taking cause there's a million ways to say your wrong but there's no way to repair somebody's heart when it's breaking
going for the angry (4x)
