(Steve Summers)

it's catching up the time that's gone by and mirrors reflect the worries in my eyes submerge me in your expectations i'll dazzle you with my performance but someday i might just take your life but for now why ruin the mood i can see your hands caressing me so breathes a killer so breathes a lover i saw something in you that i liked and i tried so hard to destroy it and everything i loathe, i somehow became it and everything i love, well i could not sustain it (chorus)

i can see your hands caressing me

and i can hear your face and see your screams so breathes a killer, so breathes a lover come inside, come inside i come inside you i cum inside you you used to be my friend you used to be my best friend you used to be the person that i want to spend my life with but now she's growing up she's about to taste the world we'll sink or swim friend just spit out as much as you swallow
i can see your hands caressing me
i can hear your face and see your screams
so breathes a killer, so breathes a lover
