We've got the place Moving all around All around You won't let go The feeling of the crowd Of the crowd There is no way That you can escape No need to hide From this body rape No need to run if you're out of time Just get your fun This is This is panic You wanna leave it With no sustain

So don't panic Just try to keep it Inside your brain

They right the rules You better not to brake You can brake You've got your way The only one at stake You can take There is no way That you can escape No need to hide From this body rape No need to run if you're out of time Just get your fun
