"Thousand Skins"

We came before the rain
We didn't leave our footprints
You'll never be the same
You couldn't hear the woodwinds
You're waiting for the pill
Streaming up to the thrill now
I said day's still dawning
You're waiting for the bill
That you cannot afford now

We came before the rain
We didn't leave our footprints
You'll never be the same
You couldn't hear the woodwinds

You wear a thousand skins
You don't let another good time in
Help me
To reach out for your pin
When you're left on me...
