

Spymob "Stand Up and Win"

Visit "Stand Up and Win" on MotoLyrics.com

If you choose to win
Take me along
Someone feels sadness
Something feels like it's taking too long

You have tried to see
How best to think
You've been logging hours rewiring
Things are still on the blink

It's time to begin
To stand up and win
You grow thicker skin
And don't wipe off that shit eating grin

You've been handed down
Information bound
To send you off the path into trees
Knock you right to the ground

If you cannot see
Don't take me along
I thought that I could follow down spirals
Grounded only by song

It's time to begin
To stand up and win
You grow thicker skin
You grow an extra layer of skin

I see light when
I think of how it could be
Somehow time will
Repair what's broken today

If you choose to win
Take me along
Someone feels sadness
Something feels like it's taking too long

You have tried to see
How best to think

You've been logging hours rewiring
Things are still on the blink

It's time to begin
To stand up and win
No sickening spins
You grow an extra layer of skin
