This is a riot.I will not sell out, I will not give in.The strangle hold of society.Was dragin' me down, but I broke free.I'm never going back to the way I was.I've found the truth I've been looking for.Holding out for a better deal.I've seen the Truth, I know it's real.Holding out for a better day.A new tomorrow, a better way.This is a riot.I will not conform to the pattern of this world.Instead I will be transformed by the renewing of my mind and spirit.My strength come from God.Who gives me power to bear it.
