You and me growin' up together. Side by side it'll last forever. We'll make it last, you know that I mean it. I pray to God that nothing comes between us. I never thought that I could feel this way. About another human being. I know I said that I'd never write a song like this. But something deep inside of me has brought me to it. Even so I wrote this song for you. Growing up you've always been by my side. To hell and back we've been there at least a million times. Now I know you're the one for me. In God we trust, true love and purity.
