She pulls a face and turns around; she says my feet aren't on the ground She pulls a face & closes the door; I can't see what she's lookin' for

Pick up your case, put on your coat, makeup your face
and go

The phone rings from the other room
I hear her voice say meet you soon,
The door shuts and I think I hear her footsteps on the drive I fear

(Middle bit) -{guide words by Glenn, this was never fully recorded and therefore not included on 'ArgyBargy'}

Her footsteps on the drive I fear
The phone rings from the other room
I hear her voice say meet you soon

Pick up your, put on your coat, makeup your face and go (Another chorus, coming up, now)
Pick up your case, put on your coat, makeup your face
