I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...
I'm looking for a love...I'm looking, looking for a love...

I'm looking for a love, oh...I'm looking for a love, oh...
I'm looking here and there, I'm searching everywhere
I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking for
I'm looking for a love to call my own

I'm looking for a love, oh...I'm looking for a love, oh...
I'm looking here and there, I'm searching everywhere
I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking for
I'm looking for a love to call my own

Gonna get up in the morning and rub my head
I'm looking for a love to call my own
Someone to cook my breakfast and bring it to my bed
I'm looking for a love to call my own
Someone to do a little faster after your name
I'm looking for a love to call my own
Lots of love and kisses but people until then
I'm looking for a love to call my own

I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...
I'm looking for a love...I'm looking, looking for a love...

I'm looking for a love, oh...I'm looking for a love, oh...
I'm looking here and there, I'm searching everywhere
I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking, I'm looking for
Looking for a love to call my own

I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...
I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...

Looking for a love...Looking for a love...

I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...
I'm looking for a love...I'm looking for a love...
I'm looking for a love, oh...I'm looking for a love, oh...
I'm looking here and there, I'm searching everywhere
