I don't care for all the wealth
In the whole wide world
Or to be a king
With a kingdom, crowned with gold and jewels

No, I don't want fame or fortune
People trembling at my name
To command the oceans
And the moon
The thunder and the rain

I'll tell you what it is I need
To turn this spark into a fire
Come close and hold me tighter still
It's you my one desire

I don't need a magic power
To live forever throughout time
Or be a genius
More creative
Than all of History's greatest minds
I don't dream of all the pleasures
Heaven holds for me
With a hand up above my head
A sword of fire and soft white wings

I'll tell you what it is I need
To turn this spark into a fire
Come close and hold me tighter still
It's you my one desire
It's you my one desire
It's you my one desire
It's you my one desire
It's you my one desire
