feat.Brenda Lee

The only time you come to me
Is in my cruel and empty dreams
No matter how lonely and sad Don't take my dreams they're all I have but you'll never know

I never thought that you d one day betray my heart then turn away With every reason I had to live
No-one would love you like I did
But you'll never know

So all alone I walked away into the darkness of the night
It hurt me so that I could die
Knowing you'll never ever realize
How I loved you so

And if you told me ever
You felt for how I cried Still you would surely never Know the hurt inside

I know that I'll never be free of chasing you and you just out of reach Forever hungry consumed by pain
Once all I needed now all I crave
But you'll never know
No you'll never know

How all alone I walked away
into the darkness of the night
It hurt me so that I could die
Every time it comes to mind
That you will never ever realize
How I loved you so
but you'll never know
How I loved you so
