This song is by Goldfinger..NOT SR-71

Once there was this girl I knew she had all she could want But her unhappiness Conceded what she'd flaunt
She said: "Everyone around here is wasting my time"
But all of her possessions couldn't make up her fine She wanted every one to sit around and talk about her life Don't ask her how she feels cause that would be a lie

[Chorus]

Don't tell me cause
you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me cause' you know
it's gotten worse
Don't tell me cause' you don't think
I know shit about the way you feel
Tell me cause'
I don't want you to hurt

She'd sit around like a vintage queen and complain about the world She says how she's so much better than you she's a special girl
She said: "Everyone around here is wasting my time"
All of her boyfriends Couldn't make her feel fine

[Chorus]

Don't tell me cause
you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me cause' you know
Don't tell me cause' you don't think
I know shit about the way you feel
Tell me cause'
I don't want you to hurt

She says everyone around me is just wasting all my time And all of her boyfriends
couldn't make her feel fine

Don't tell me cause
you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me cause' you don't think
I know shit about the way you feel
Tell me cause'
I don't want you to

[Chorus]
Don't tell me cause
you know I know it hurts
Don't tell me cause' you know
Don't tell me cause' you don't think
I know shit about the way you feel
Tell me cause'
