SS501 - Play (English)

W-w-w-wish one
W-w-w-wanna be
W-w-w-wish one
I see a bursting heart~

At these times, close your eyes and release fears Now it's started, throw yourself into the world
A world you always dreamt of, capture that dream
Let me play with you...
W-w-w-wish one
W-w-w-wanna be
W-w-w-wish one
I see a bursting heart~

The wish one enjoy the richness of the wind
I wanna be
I see a bursting heart~

Sometimes you have small moments of regret, but keep enjoying (life)

A little more
Play, play, I can change you
a little more
Play, play, I can make it song
Just smile, and you can withstand any ordeals
I can say this to you

Want you think about to burning seeing into each-other's hearts waiting for your dreams to become pure, don't you know inside your warm heart is a fresh vision You can make a miracle happen if you want to Just think of it, go get started Seeing the hope shown in your beautiful PLAY

In times when you lost your strength, smile away the loneliness briefly turn to and look at the sky and shout out Always with all your power, capture that dream world of tomorrow
Let me play with you~

The wish one
enjoy the richness of the wind
I wanna be

Sometimes you have small moments of regret, but

a little more
Play, play, I can make it song
Just smile, and you can withstand any ordeals

Your own unique charm shows your style now you make it, oh baby~ let go of that weary expression with fashion and energy, enjoy it once again

Once more, play, play, now get started Think of how you shine Imagine at this moment, your wonderful world someday dream to come

A little more

a little more
Play, play, I can make it song
Just smile, and you can withstand any ordeals
I can say this to you
