I'm feeling that weight of the world
And it's crushing me
I'm feeling the weight of everyday life
And it's crushing me

How much more will it take?
How much more until it breaks me?
This world is crushing me

I'm feeling the hate of the world
And it's crashing me
I'm feeling the hate of everyday life
And it's crushing me

How much more will it take?
How much more until it breaks me?
This world is crushing me, it's crushing me

I'm feeling the hate of the world
And it's crashing me
I'm feeling the hate of the world
And it's crashing me

I swallow the hate, betrayed and lies
Swallow it whole and shove it deep down inside of me
I'm feeling the weight of the world
And it's crushing me, and it's crushing me
And it's crushing me, and it's crushing me

I swallow the hate, betrayed and lies
Swallow it whole and shove it deep down inside of me
How much more will it take?
How much more until it breaks me?

I'm feeling the hate of the world
I'm feeling the hate of the world
And it's crushing me
