"Desperate Now"

I keep breaking all the promises
That I keep making to myself
You'd think by now that I'd be over this
Instead I'm feeling sorry for myself

So why does everything seem so desperate now
I should be feeling so alive
But it feels like something's missing
Something's wrong somehow
It feels like something
Deep inside has died

So why do I feel desperate now
Why do I feel like dying
Why do I feel desperate now
Why do I feel desperate now

I keep breaking all the promises
That I keep making to myself
But the promises mean nothing to me anymore
Circling the drain...
Spiraling to hell...

So why do I feel desperate now
Why do I feel like dying
Why do I feel desperate now
Why do I feel desperate now
