Lost in a world of doubt and insecurity
Nothing that you hold sacred, nothing you believe Your life is a contradiction while you thrive on manipulation
I fight to just hold on to what I believe

I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become you

You've treated me like I'm a worthless piece of shit
You think you're in control but you make me sick
I want to watch you suffer the way that you made me suffer
I want to fuck up everything you've ever loved

I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become you

I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate

I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become the thing I hate
I won't become you
