"We Will Realize"

who would i be to tell you what you should or shouldn't do would that be right
it couldn't matter
what you say you have my heart and my mind i can pretend i don't love you but when i close my eyes i see the one who brought me here and i can no longer lie i see the one i should've seen before now i see you and i need your love and you need mine will we realize

how you should or shouldn't feel
would that be right
what you say i still feel the same you are my life
