Two seconds ago
I saw you leave
You walked out the door
And told me you couldn't breathe

Two seconds ago
I told you to go
To hell I don't know
What I ever saw ooh
In you ooh

Two seconds ago
I closed my eyes
And fell on the floor
When I realized that

Two seconds ago
You broke my heart
And now my whole world
Is falling apart ooh
Without you ooh

I thought my life was over
Turns out that it's just begun
The whole world seemed against me
But I guess they're with me somehow
I thought that nobody loved me
But look at you now
I know there's someone out there
And I guess that you were a start

Two seconds ago
You burst through my door
And told me you're sorry
That you still love me

But two seconds ago
I had let go
And what we once had
Will stay in my past ooh
I don't need you ooooh

I thought my life was over
Turns out that it's just begun
The whole world seemed against me
But I guess they're with me somehow
I thought that nobody loved me
But look at you now
I know there's someone out there
And I guess that you were a start

Oooh life, can pass us by
So I, made up my mind
Don't you waste, my time

I thought my life was over
I thought that nobody loved me
But look at you now
I know there's someone out there
And I guess that you where a start
I guess that you where a start

Two seconds ago
And I started to breathe
