"Winter Song"

You came to me
On a windy day in October,
Colourful leaves
Were blowing through the sky,
You held my hand,
Your body was my shelter,
And just for a while
Things seemed to be fine.
Winter came closer,
The sun started to fade.
You are
You are
You are
You are
You're like a bird,
On a winters day
You'll fly away
But you'll be back some sunny day.
So many words
And yet I find no meaning,
So many signs
But I just didn't see them.
Winter grew colder,
The colours seem to turn grey,
The days slowly grew shorter
As I started to fade.
You are
You are
You are
You are
You are
You are
You are
You are
You're like a bird,
On a winters day
You'll fly away
But you'll be back some day.
