There is a place where my heart meets yours
Where I watched you swim away
Where I knew I couldn't want you more

There is a place where my heart meets yours
Where I know I'll see you again
Where I left you lying on the diving board

It was never over

And you know when you're awake
Cause you're alone and you're afraid
I'm only 24 hours a thousand miles away

Cry the chlorine from your eyes
I'll fall asleep between your thighs
I'm only 24 hours, a thousand miles away

There is a place where my heart meets yours
Where my lonely ghosts are laid
Where I knew I couldn't want you more

There is a place where my heart meets yours
Where I know I'll see you again
Where I left you lying on the diving board

It was never over

And you know when you're awake
Cause you're alone and you're afraid
I'm only 24 hours a thousand miles away
Cry the chlorine from your eyes
I'll fall asleep between your thighs
I'm only 24 hours a thousand miles away (x2)
