"Looking For You"

My mistake was half the kill
But what I said finished it off
I know I am never here
And when I am I'm never there for you

You say all you want is the truth
Well it's the truth my dear that you hate so much
I would love to stay with you
But I have to sing along with my boys at the bar

If I lied about the past or if the truth was really sad
And if we fight almost every night then I'm to blame
But I swear if you weren't there it wouldn't be the same
Honey you're the best so gimme another chance
I'd be living all my life yeah baby
I'd be living every second of my live looking for you

September I'm leaving again
Singing sad songs about being away from you
I would love to stay with you
But I have to sing along with my boys on the road

I'd walk one thousand miles looking for you
