once our love has reached an end we said we'd never meet again so easy to say the word goodbye so hard to let your feelings die it seems how can eternity since I held you close to me now that we see where we went wrong our love become a love as twice as strong

[Chorus:]

and now we're starting over again it's not the easiest thing to do I'm feeling inside again 'cause every time I look at you I know we're starting over again this time we'll love all the pain away welcome home, my lover and friend we are starting over, over again you can see the tears in my eyes a second chance is such a surprise please don't think I'm feeling sad I'm getting back the love I had if we never lived alone, then we might have never known all of the time we spent apart all we did was break each other's hearts

[chorus]

[repeat chorus x2 til fade]
