Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up
I've been a fool, baby, long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up

The way you love me always feels so good
I can't resist you, but I know I should
You turn me on with your tender touch
And when you leave me, and it hurts so much

Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up
I've seen this movie playing long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up

I let you in on all my fantasies
And you know all I miss two beats
And now there's nothing left to hide from you
There's only one thing that I can do

Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up
I've been a fool, baby, long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up

[Guitar solo]

The way I love you I need from the heart
I gotta keep it from falling apart
You say you wanna go the distance with me
There's nothing more that I want to believe
I gotta toughen up
Toughen up

Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up
I've been a fool, baby, long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up

Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up

I've seen this movie playing long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up

Toughen up
I got to find a way to toughen up
I've been a fool, baby, long enough
Now it's time for me to toughen up
