I am chasing the wind
I just want to be free
Sometime I'll be a bird who finds a tree
As white as snow
my dreams colored the sky to make them see who I am Ah...
I've always been strong but I'm searching for answers
Right now
Believe in yourself and make them see

Reaching for the endless sky
Show the world that you're trying
You are growing stronger every day
Ah...
When you feel like you're alone
I am always here for you
Face the future only you can see
Promise me

I know that you're afraid but you just have to find your way
When you are dreaming you will find what you're searching for

Even though the days are passing and they seem the same Every time you make mistakes rise your voice and say
"I'll walk along this road no matter where it takes me"

You'll find who you are if you just keep on dreaming
Right now
Erase all your doubts and fly away

Spread your wings into the sky
Make your life worth living now
Just become the one you wanna be

Ah...
Take a chance and go your way
Somewhere there's a place for you Show me that your smile can change the world we live in

Reaching for the endless sky
Show the world that you're trying
You are growing stronger every day
Ah...
When you feel like you're alone
I am always here for you
Face the future only you can see
Promise me

Spread your wings into the sky
Make your life worth living now
Just become the one you wanna be
Ah...
You will find what you're searching for Show the world who you are born to be
