Moderator's note: I'll add the japanese part later.
I'm still not very good with the language so it may take some time.

My heart is beating faster, faster
There is an urge inside of me
That special day I glanced into the unchangeable reality

The ones of you who called me a liar
I have a big surprise for you
You were the ones that made me suffer
Now i will make you suffer too

Listen closely to the words I say
You will not be able to change me

All the things you said echoes in my head and it's all because of my murderous urge
Right now I feel no pain
I will make you pay
Make you fade away
Like a flower my true color never change
You'll not be able to kill me

The sky is colored red this evening
I wonder why so suddenly?
I don't know what my eyes are seeing
The world is looking differently

I wash my hands with dirty water
It doesn't matter anyway
Without a thought of what I'm doing
I disappear without a trace

Listen closely to the words I say
You will not be able to change me

All the things you said echoes in my head
and it's all because of my murderous urge

Right now I feel no pain
I will make you pay
Make you fade away
Like a flower my true color never change
You'll not be able to kill me

{Sings in japanes}

All the things you said echoes in my head
and it's all because of my murderous urge
Right now I feel no pain
I will make you pay
Make you fade away
Like a flower my true color never change
You'll not be able to kill me
