Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
Mata ne

Precious moments were so dear to me
Even now I still remember
Searching for something unreachable
Ah...
Something I can't seem to find

Just tell me where you are even though I can't hear your voice again
Why have you gone so far when I need you by my side

Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
I'm looking for a sign to tell me where you are These hands won't be enough to reach you
Mata ne

You won't see the seasons change again but I hope that you're still with me
When I think about the time we had
Ah...
The tears I cry doesn't seem to end

Just like a fading star
I am lost without your light to guide my way
Why have you gone so far?
Give me wings to fly away

Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
I'm looking for a sign to tell me where you are
These hands won't be enough to reach you
Mata ne

Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
I'm looking for a sign to tell me where you are

These hands won't be enough to reach you

Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
I'm looking for a sign to tell me where you are
These hands won't be enough to reach you

Somewhere in the rain your tears dried on your face
I wonder if you still can see me
