From the time we met you were dear to me Though seasons keeps on changing in my memories
The night sky which I gazed into would never seem to end Even then you woke me up with a smile

Now I can't erase the image of your face Screaming out your name with every beat of my heart

Can you see the stars?
You're so close, but still so far
Can you feel my voice breathing life into you?

Sakura
hear your falling blossoms whisper in the air Every night, I embraced you through your sorrows
Namida
doesn't matter how much I try to forget Those moments where like flowers to me

If I fade away then will you search for me?
If "someday" don't exist
then will you wait for me?
This time I'll hold you tight so we won't have to part again
In your eyes I saw your heart reach out for me

No matter how we try our love will never die Endless nights of crying were all just for you

Somewhere in between reality and dream
Can you feel my tears falling down on your skin?

Sakura
hear your falling blossoms whisper in the air
Every night, I embraced you through your sorrows
Namida
doesn't matter how much I try to forget

Lonley nights won't last forever Until we meet again we'll always be together

hear your falling blossoms whisper in the air
Every night, I embraced you through your sorrows
Namida
