You took my hand and lead med to your heart
To where exactly where I thought I belong
The next minute you left me with scar
And now I cry all day long

I thought I was right all the way
I thoought you were the one
I thought you will always be mine
But yet your one guy who loves to break girls heart at once.

Not I'm stuck here wid no words
Tears rolling down my face
Are truly blood from my broken hearts
Now it wont stop it wont stop

Please let me go please let me go
I just don't want to get my heart flow
Please let me go please let me go
I just wanna take everythinggg slow
