I can't go on, it's much to hard
Lifes a prison, livings the guard
To end it all, would be untragic
To the people who love me, I'm sorry, I've had it

My patiences been stretched, to the point of breaking
I'm going insane, I'm all done taking
If I wanted your help, I'd have asked for it
But it's to little to late, the end will submit

I'm now in a coffin, but no ones around
No ones come to pay respects, or put me in the ground
Nobody cares, that I am so gone
For me I take death, while thier lives go on

My patiences been stretched, to the point of breaking
I'm going insane, I'm all done taking
If I wanted your help, I'd have asked for it
But it's to little to late, the end will submit

Won't somebody please, lift me up in the air
I've been shot away, because nobody cares
I'd have made myself noticed, if I could go back
But I'm just another death certifact, in a large and awful stack

My patiences been stretched, to the point of breaking
I'm going insane, I'm all done taking
If I wanted your help, I'd have asked for it
But it's to little to late, the end will submit
