Yea...

Like a threat of the darkest clouds rolling in on a sunny day

Yea...

Like a field that has no rain

Yea...

Like a dawn that wonders aimless with no name

Yea...

Like a cut without the pain

Yea....

You couldn't feel love

You couldn't take the pain

Yea....

You couldn't let love

And I'm just trying to get through to you

But I am failing

Lie like I'm not even here

My heart is breaking

Trying to see through your stare

Looks right through me

Smile and pretend I'm not there

To keep from going crazy

Yea...

Like the day that your guardian angel decided to fly away

Yea...

Like a bruise that doesn't fade

Yea...

Like a memory that taunted your soul until your dying
day

Yea...

Like a life you couldn't save

Yea....

You couldn't feel love

You couldn't take the pain

You couldn't let love

And I'm just trying to get through to you

But I am failing
Lie like I'm not even here
My heart is breaking
Trying to see through your stare
Looks right through me
Smile and pretend I'm not there
To keep from going crazy

I tried to...
Get through to you
I tried to...
I tried...
I tried to...
Get through to you
I tried to...
And...

I'm still trying to get through to you
But I am failing
Lie like I'm not even here
My heart is breaking
Trying to see through your stare
It looks right through me
Smile and pretend I'm not there
To keep from going crazy

I tried to...
Get through to you
I tried to...

I tried to...
Get through to you
I tried to...
Get through

I tried to...
Get through to you
I tried to...
