A piece of glass
In the sand under your feet
It cuts you deep
It makes you hate the beauty that you see

And you wonder where you are
How you ever got so far
Now you question what went wrong
It's your heart

It's raining again
There's a dark cloud over your head
It follows you around, it's bringing you down
It's raining, it's raining again

A wilted rose
And you're the gaze of all you see
You buy the flaws
And miss the beauty that is yours for free
Realize you are so far
From the things that matter now
And you only wonder how
It's your heart

It's raining again
There's a dark cloud over your head
It follows you around, it's bringing you down
It's raining, it's raining again

Come on, come on, get it right
Come on, come on, make it right
Come on, come on, it's alright

It's raining again
There's a dark cloud over your head
It follows you around, it's bringing you down
It's raining, it's raining again

It's raining, raining again
There's a dark cloud over your head
