Aimless time in fear new hide, overthrow the plan
Confusion lies in all my words,
"Mad" is the soul

And we barricade ourselves
In holes of temperament. this is the dawning of new age
A heart that beats the wrong way

In a dream i saw the world beyond
No tongues telling lies
In a dream i saw the laughter on my face
Reality mirrored

In a dream i saw myself falling down
FALLEN DOWEN next to me
In a dream i saw myself buried in
BRUIED IN thoughts of me

When i listen to the whispers in the wind
My fading life passes by, sounds from the dark side
That covers everything inside

Hand scratching my face for, for the days that i lost
Blood drippÄ±ng on dust for the love
For the love i have lost

In my dreams i'm MY OWN enemy
Too much love i'd given for, for everyone but not for me
When i have watched myself behind the masks

No wasted words for the trusted ones
The silence was covering me
The silence was covering you, AND everything inside
