

Southpark

"Satan-Up There"

Visit "Satan-Up There" on MotoLyrics.com

Sometimes I think, when I look up real high
That there is such a big world up there
I'd like to give it a try.
But then I sink, cuz it is here I'm supposed to stay.
But I get so lonely down here, tell me why's it have to be that way?

Up there,
there is so much room,
where babies burp and flowers bloom.
Everyone dreams, I can dream too.
Up there, up where the skies are ocean blue.
I can be safe and live without a care,
up there

They say I don't belong
I must stay below alone.
Because of my beliefs I'm supposed to stay where evil
is sown
But what is evil anyway?
is there reason to the rhyme?
Without evil there can be no good,
So it must be good to be evil sometimes.

Up there,
there is so much room,
where babies burp and flowers bloom.
Everyone dreams, I can dream too.
Up there, up where the skies are ocean blue.
I can be safe and live without a care
live without a care
If only I could live up there.
I wanna live
I wanna live up there
Ooh baby, ooh
I want to live up there.

Visit Southpark page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

