The lying, and cheating, I'm screaming
It's tearing me apart
Your lying, deceiving, I'm leaving
I'm done with this shit

(Chorus)

You played me like a game
I'm left in so much pain
I look at you and wonder who's next in line.
When you rip his heart
Will you lay it next to mine
I look at you and wonder who's next in line.

My hatred is growing
I feel like exploding

(Chorus)

You played me like a game
I'm left in so much pain
I look at you in wonder who's next in line.
When you rip his heart out
Will you lay it next to mine
I look at you and wonder who's next in line.
