

You Love Her Coz She's Dead

"Leap Of Desire"

We speak the language of a lost empire
To a sick man clinging to a mountain of fire
A second breath
A single thought to run down my neck
Sweating on the hand
That takes a leap of desire

All my lovers are dead
That takes a leap of desire

The ship has sailed to hold your heart on fire
With the two sides held by the madness inside her
So hard to see I step back into the power of three
I feel the push
I take a leap out of me

All my lovers are dead
That takes a leap of desire

I feel so free
